

Richard and JeannaLynn May have been married since 1986. The first 15 years were miserable.

The second half has been aMAYzing!

Their marriage is a testimony of moving from bad to good, good to great, and great to impact. Due to sharing their story in their local church, the marriage ministry was born that ultimately grew so influential that Richard and JeannaLynn made the transition to become marriage missionaries.

JeannaLynn is an RN, earning her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Ole Miss. She now has 35 years of experience in Women's Health most recently as the Childbirth Educator for Integris Health Canadian Vally in Yukon where they have lived since 1999.

JeannaLynn is also a board certified life coach through the International Coaching Federation with a relationship specialty. She began life coaching studies with the Institute for Life Coach Training in 2007 and has coached thousands of hours in her coaching career – the majority of those hours in virtual and face-to-face sessions in Oklahoma City with Richard.

Richard earned a BA in Bible from Magnolia Bible College and later an MA in Ministry from Oklahoma Christian University.

His 35 years in the ministry of reconciliation includes 25 years of preaching in Mississippi, Tennessee, and Oklahoma and now 10 years in spiritual formation working with clients that he and JeannaLynn coach.

Richard also serves as the director of WGHJ Ministries, the non-profit that he and JeannaLynn began in 2010, so that they can coach and support their clients regardless of their ability to pay. aMAYzing Impact is the life, relationship, and marriage coaching branch of WGHJ.

In addition to the local coaching in OKC, Richard and JeannaLynn do marriage events nationally and internationally for churches and communities called the aMAYzing Impact Retreat.

Richard and JeannaLynn have two adult children:

- Brad was a police officer in OKC. Brad was married to Sarah. He passed in November of 2021.
- Brittney is a wife and mother and owns a Medical Clinic cleaning business in Kansas with her husband, also Brad.

They are a real couple with real passion for real marriages.
